

The Leading Open Platform for Connected Cars

Trusted by top wireless carriers, including Deutsche Telekom and T-Mobile US, Mojo is the platform of choice for scalable deployment of secure connected car apps and services.

Mojo Unlocks Hidden Data From Nearly Any Car

Completely scalable and hardware agnostic, Mojo provides all the elements needed to launch your connected car service.

The Clear Choice For Connected Car Services

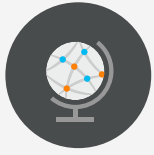

Open Platform

By opening up our platform, we give your customers unlimited access to a growing range of connected car apps and services, powered by Mojo and tailored to their needs.

Hardware Agnostic

If there's one constant with hardware, it's change. By remaining hardware agnostic, Mojo evolves as technologies do, keeping your customers happier for longer.

Globally Scalable

With auto scaling and self-healing responses, Mojo is the most robust connected car platform, providing mission critical services across the globe.

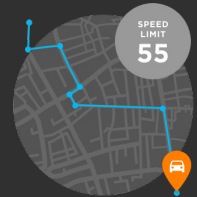

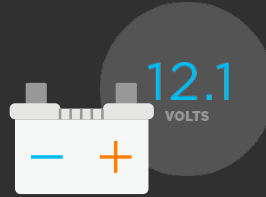

Smart Security

The platform itself acts as a gateway making sure only authorized applications have access to the data, keeping everything safe and secure.

Data That Matters

Your customers' cars are computers on wheels generating massive amounts of data. Thankfully, our platform knows how to handle it.
